AMA | Art Museum of the Americas announces Art After Dark, our fourth annual after-hours fundraising event created to bring art lovers together for a night that includes art, live music, a DJ, video, and performance. Art After Dark is a cultural component of the Organization of American States, promoting and raising funds for our ongoing effort to engage communities and promote democratic values and human rights through our art and educational programs.

Dangerous Muse will premiere their new music video, Fame Kills, by Eric Miclette and Mojo Video Tech as well as a fashion film, Walk For Me, by Love Bailey and Eric Miclette.

The current exhibition on display is Fusion: Tracing Asian Migration to the Americas through AMA's Collection. Through AMA's permanent collection, one of the most vital sources of modern and contemporary Latin American and Caribbean art in the United States, this exhibition examines and generates a dialogue about cultural diversity. This is accomplished by exploring the migration of artists or their families to the Americas from Asia during the second half of the 19th century and the first half of the 20th century.

Staged in collaboration with the Friends of AMA, a non-profit 501(c)(3) that supports museum programming, Art After Dark showcases the museum's one-of-a-kind permanent collection of modern and contemporary Latin American and Caribbean art, while bringing out some of the more innovative and intriguing emerging performers of DC and beyond. All proceeds from Art After Dark 2013 support exhibitions, education and public programs of AMA.
